SEASON 15 STILL WE RISE

Dec '25: Hope

Inspired by Emily Dickinson's "Hope is the Thing with Feathers," this concert celebrates optimism and possibility. Soaring melodies remind us that hope endures, offering light and comfort even in the darkest times.

March '26: Struggle

Helen Steiner Rice's "This Too Shall Pass," inspires this program on life's challenges and perseverance. Through powerful music, it reminds us that hardships are temporary and strength emerges in struggle.

June '26: Resilience (15TH Anniversary Concert)

Maya Angelou's "Still I Rise" inspires this bold finale. With joyful, uplifting music, it celebrates resilience, courage, and unity — the unshakable spirit that continues to rise.

Parade Performances

We proudly represent the LGBTQ+ community in parades like Come Out With Pride and One Magical Weekend, spreading joy & inclusivity through music.
